- Evaluating the slavery and human trafficking risks of each new supplier.

We do not consider that we operate in a high-risk environment because It is a testament to our commitment to ethical sourcing and quality assurance that the majority of our supply chain is based in the UK and the EU, and that our working relationships with reputable brands are carefully monitored. This is something we take great pride in, and it is reassuring to know that our products are sourced responsibly..

We do not tolerate slavery and human trafficking in our supply chains. Where there is evidence of failure to comply with our policies and procedures by any of our suppliers, we will seek to terminate our relationship with that supplier immediately.

Effectiveness

We use Key Performance Indicators (KPIs) to measure our effectiveness and ensure that slavery and human trafficking is not taking place in our business and supply chains. These KPIs are as follows:

- We will contact suppliers to enquire about their modern slavery practices every 12 months.
- We will train our staff about modern slavery issues and increase awareness.
- We will carry out a regular audit of suppliers - 100% of suppliers each year.

Training our staff

We require our staff to complete training and ongoing refresher courses on slavery and human trafficking. Our training covers:
